froogle.com

froo·gle (fru'gal) n. Smart shopping through Google. Having established itself as one of the web's premium information search engines, adapting its ability toward sniffing out the best shopping deals on the web seemed a natural next step for Google. Thus, Froogle was born. Enter your must-have item and chances are Froogle will turn up an option or two – or a thousand! A search for Persian rugs yields approximately 15,000 results in a mere 0.18 seconds. Looking for antique clocks? Nowhere else can you find 11,000 search results in half a minute. To narrow your results, use Froogle's left-hand navigation bar to set search parameters like price, category or store.
